Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Tuesday 06 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Becoming brighter Wednesday, with sunshine and showers.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rain should ease northwards into the evening, leaving many areas drier and clearer, but with a legacy of low cloud in places. Further, more showery rain is possible later in the night. Mainly mild, but temperatures dipping under clearer skies. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Wednesday:
On the cloudy side to start, with patchy rain. Progressively brightening up to sunny spells and showers, with some of these showers potentially heavy, with isolated thunder possible later. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Changeable, with further sunny spells but also showers. Low cloud perhaps arriving into Saturday, breaking later to allow heavy, perhaps thundery showers. Temperatures mostly near normal, with generally light winds.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.